Model Answer to Describe a cafe you like to visit IELTS Cue Card

- One of my maternal aunts lives in Delhi.
- During summer get-away, me and my sister visit her and go through some days there.
- Her house is only close to the renowned real Indian customary bistro, Indian Café.
- It was one of the initial not many bistros set up in Delhi, during the English occasions.
- It is very not quite the same as the bistro chains of today like Barista, Bistro Espresso Day, and Starbucks.
- Unlike them, it doesn't offer a wide assortment of espresso like lattes, cappuccino, mochas.
- In truth, they have an extremely short menu.

- There are only two espressos and cold.
- Besides that, they offer tea and some new squeezes.
- In snacks once more they have restricted alternatives four or five choices.
- But I recall only one-which is the onion squanders.
- Sometimes I drink tea and here and there espresso, however I generally request the onion squanders.
- They are so yummy.
- That is the principle reason I go there.
- Well, there is another explanation the modest costs.
- And albeit the costs have expanded in the course of recent years, they are still entirely moderate.
- Because of that, it very well may be very elusive a vacant table.
- In truth, at times I have seen individuals hanging tight in line for an hour before they get obliged.
- There is additionally this appeal about the spot.
- The old plan, the dilapidated tables, and seats, the servers wearing conventional Indian clothing types, it resembles a gateway into the past.
