

Describe a decision made by others/someone that you disagreed with

simplyielts.com/lessons/describe-a-decision-made-by-others-someone-that-you-disagreed-with

IELTS English speaking course - Simply IELTS

Describe a decision made by others/someone that you disagreed with IELTS cue Card

In this lesson from simply ielts, you will know how to Describe a decision made by others/someone that you disagreed with band 9 IELTS Speaking Cue Card part 2 and part 3 follow up questions.

Describe a decision made by others/someone that you disagreed with IELTS Cue Card

You should say

- What the decision was?
- How was it made?
- What you disagreed with?
- And explain why you disagreed with it?

Band 9 Model Answer to Describe a decision made by others/someone that you disagreed with IELTS Cue Card

- We as a whole need to settle on choices every once in a while.
- A few choices are settled upon by all, though a few choices are not loved by all.

- Here, I might want to discuss a choice, which was made by my two companions Raman and Sunder, when we were in tenth class.
- They chose to bunk school and head out to watch a film in a multiplex.
- I differ unequivocally.
- Most importantly, bunking school didn't appear acceptable to me.
- Then, at that point, going for a film without guardians' consent was out of inquiry all things considered.
- I encouraged them to go for the film on a Sunday, toward the beginning of the day show, in the wake of taking consent from our folks.
- However, they were inflexible, and were driving me likewise to go with them.
- I was in an issue, as I would not like to frustrate my companions.
- Yet, my dad is extremely severe.
- I realized that on the off chance that he discovered, he would be extremely disturbed and may even not converse with me for quite a long time.
- I was unable to try and bear to think about that.
- Along these lines, I said a firm no to my companions and again attempted to discourage them from bunking school.
- They, notwithstanding, disagreed and went for the film.
- I recollect that I felt extremely light on a basic level for not going with them.
- I can't consider deceiving my folks, or concealing anything from them.
- Along these lines, this was the choice made by my companions, which I didn't care for.

Speaking Part 3 Follow-Up Questions to Describe a decision made by others/someone that you disagreed with

1. What abilities are important when simply deciding?

Each individual needs to settle on choices every once in a while. A decent choice requires both head and heart. Chiefs need to find out if that choice bodes well, and furthermore whether it feels right.

A decent choice requires a decent understanding into what every one of the results of that choice could be. It needs reasonable reasoning and a little capacity to investigate what's to come.

2. How can individuals further develop their dynamic abilities?

With experience, the dynamic abilities consequently improve. Individuals are simply need to remember, what everything results could be, and furthermore be prepared to confront the outcomes, whatever they are.

3. How do you figure PCs will change the manner in which individuals decide?

PCs can change the manner in which individuals simply decide, as presently through PCs, individuals can post their quandaries in numerous gatherings and take exhort from others who have confronted comparative circumstances.

4. Do guardians in India permit their youngsters to make significant decisions about what's to come?

No, guardians in India for the most part prefer to settle on significant choices about the eventual fate of their kids.

They like to have their say when their kid needs to pick his/her future vocation, and furthermore when he/she needs to pick his/her soul mate.

5. Do you believe that guardians should settle on significant choices for their kids?

I figure guardians ought to have a solid conversation with their youngsters when they need to settle on a significant choice, and afterward let the kid have the last say.