

Describe a time when you tried to do something but weren't very successful

 simplyielts.com

Describe a time when you tried to do something but weren't very successful IELTS Cue Card with band 9 answer and part 3 follow up questions

In this lesson from simply IELTS, you will know how to Describe a time when you tried to do something but weren't very successful band 9 IELTS Speaking Cue Card part 2 and part 3 follow up questions.

Describe a time when you tried to do something but weren't very successful IELTS Cue Card

You should say

- When it was
- What you tried
- Why it was not very successful
- And how you felt about it.

Band 9 Model Answer to Describe a time when you tried to do something but weren't very successful IELTS Cue Card

- It was my sister's birthday on 26th May.
- I'm not truly adept at picking presents, so I avoid any and all risks.
- She adores chocolate cake thus I request it for her consistently.
- It is somewhat of a custom in our home, that I will get a cake.

- Nobody even mulls over everything or even asks me.
- Be that as it may, this year because of the lockdown, all the pastry kitchen shops were shut.
- There is a renowned home cook in my city, who heats on hand.
- In this way, next, I attempted that, yet lamentably, she was overwhelmed with orders.
- She revealed to me she was unable to convey the cake by the birthday.
- Presently, I was in a genuine pickle.
- The lone choice was to prepare a cake myself.
- Furthermore, truly, I'm an awful cook and I had never at any point done any kind of preparing.
- Be that as it may, when all else fails, compromise is unavoidable.
- Along these lines, I opened YouTube and opened the fledgling fundamentals video for making a chocolate cake.
- I checked the fixings and we had every one of them at home aside from cream.
- I figured I could utilize milk all things considered.
- Furthermore, obviously, that was my first error.
- Nothing went directly starting there on.
- My cake mixture was runny rather than semi-strong like the video proposed.
- My icing tasted dreadful, presumably in light of the milk.
- I didn't dare put it on.
- I went through almost five hours in the kitchen, made an immense wreck with flour, cocoa powder on all the racks and the floor.
- The outcome was a hard thick terribly tasting something.
- My mother disclosed to me that I ought to have asked her for help.
- I felt terrible that I was unable to convey yet my relatives just couldn't quit chuckling.
- I think my shame and the kitchen's condition made it considerably more interesting to them
- It is currently a running joke in our home.
- In any discussion, my folks or my sister haphazardly raise the occurrence and begin giggling.
- I think they will prod me for the remainder of my life.

Speaking Part 3 Follow-Up Questions to Describe a time when you tried to do something but weren't very successful

---

1. What's your meaning of achievement?

My definition is achievement is that, the result should fulfill me and my family. I don't mind what others feel or how others rate my exhibition, in case I'm content with the outcomes, I believe I have succeeded.

2. What things do youngsters attempt to prevail in?

The primary concern that youngsters attempt to prevail in are sports contest and studies. Other than that, adolescence is the hour of mastering abilities, so kids attempt to be fruitful in acquiring abilities like riding a bike, figuring out how to move, etc.

3. Which do you believe is more significant for individuals to become fruitful, handwork or openings?

I think both are similarly significant in certain respects. There is no question in my mind that rich individuals improve training and work openings, however the troublesome and testing conditions during youth make individuals from helpless families all the more intellectually solid.

Eventually, over the long haul, it is about difficult work, openings can open entryways for individuals, however difficult work changes over these entryways into examples of overcoming adversity.

4. Do you figure individuals would be more joyful in the event that they didn't have any objectives to accomplish?

I don't figure an existence without objectives might truly bring satisfaction. Indeed, it would prompt wretchedness.

Individuals need objectives in life for bliss as well as to endure. Objectives carry reason to our lives and carry us something to anticipate.