

Describe a town or city you would like to live in the future

 simplyielts.com

Describe a town or city you would like to live in the future IELTS Cue Card with band 9 answer and part 3 follow up questions

In this lesson from simply IELTS, you will know how to Describe a town or city you would like to live in the future band 9 IELTS Speaking Cue Card part 2 and part 3 follow up questions.

Describe a town or city you would like to live in the future IELTS Cue Card

You should say

- Where it is?
- How you know about it?
- What is it famous for?
- And why would you like to live there?

Band 9 Model Answer to Describe a town or city you would like to live in the future IELTS Cue Card

- Right now, I live in Moga. It is a modern town in Punjab.
- I love living here.
- It is neither too huge nor excessively little.

- Hence, it partakes in certain offices accessible in urban areas, and yet, it doesn't have issues like gridlock and contamination, which numerous enormous urban communities experience the ill effects of.
- In any case, in the event that I had the chance, I would like to move to Chandigarh.
- Chandigarh is the capital of Punjab.
- On the off chance that I needed to describe it, I would consider it a managerial city.
- Chandigarh, in contrast to most Indian urban areas, was worked after freedom.
- It was planned by a French designer
- In this way, it isn't indiscriminate like most Indian urban areas.
- That is the main thing I like with regards to it, it's arranging that is.
- The city is partitioned into areas.
- The neighborhoods, the business regions, the modern regions are generally independent.
- In Moga, the business and neighborhoods are on the whole together, and in this way even around evening time it's extremely uproarious.
- Something else I like with regards to Chandigarh is the vegetation.
- It has many parks and the nearby specialists have planted trees along the two roadsides.
- It has probably the best shopping center and retail outlets in the country.
- Truth be told, probably Asia's greatest shopping center, Elante is in Chandigarh.
- It likewise has a decent nightlife.
- At long last, Chandigarh is one of the most incredible associated urban communities in Punjab.
- It has a railroad station, a bus stop, and an air terminal too.
- You can travel for the end of the week and be back for work on Monday.
- Shimla, which is a well-known slope station in India, is only 3 hour's drive from Shimla.
- Along these lines, in the summers one can go through the end of the week in the slopes.

Speaking Part 3 Follow-Up Questions to Describe a town or city you would like to live in the future

1. Why accomplish an ever increasing number of individuals live in the city?

I think the fundamental explanation is business. It is truly challenging to secure high-paid positions in country regions or towns.

Another significant explanation is offices. Individuals approach better schooling, medical services, and diversion offices in urban communities.

2. How does this influence the climate and nature?

I think the developing urbanization is prompting weight on the climate. The measure of waste and contamination being created in urban areas is impractical over the long haul. It has antagonistic ramifications for human wellbeing also.

Indeed, studies have shown that the future of individuals in metropolitan regions is significantly not exactly in rustic regions on account of air contamination.

3. What are a few factors that draw in individuals to settle down in certain spots?

I think business is the fundamental factor. In case there are business openings in places, they would consistently draw in individuals.

Other than that, area and environment are likewise significant. For instance, the ubiquity of California is a direct result of its lovely environment. For certain individuals, a significant thought is the nature of training their youngsters can get nearby. Many individuals even relocate to areas with better schools

4. What are the contrasts between the youthful and old while picking a spot to live?

I think youngsters today care the most with regards to business openings and diversion offices while picking the area.

They favor places with a decent nightlife, accessibility of shopping centers and retail plazas. Then again, the old favor living in places with great medical services offices. They likewise favor safe areas and urban communities.